The Dutch Law Institute isn't responsible for the quality of services provided by the Dutch lawyers or law firms listed here. Being on the list doesn't mean the Dutch Law Institute endorses them. The Dutch Law Institute has no connection or relationship with them. The order of the names is random, and the information about their skills and language abilities is provided by the lawyers themselves. You can get more information about the lawyers on the list from the Dutch Bar Association's website. The fees and legal services are agreed upon between the lawyer and the individual seeking legal help. If you use any of the Dutch lawyers or law firms listed, it would be helpful for us if you could give the Dutch Law Institute feedback on the service you received.
